2	AIESEC in GIKI Explanations	- The meeting commenced with an introduction from the AIESEC in LC Hanoi team. Each member introduced themselves and explained their respective roles within the local committee. 2 AIESEC in LC Hanoi Explanations

		• AIESEC in LC Hanoi (Vietnam) shared their expectations and outlined the interview flow for the partnership between the AIESEC team and the partner company. • Global Teacher (GTE): Requires a Bachelor's degree in English Education, a C1 Level Certificate, an English teaching certification, and a minimum of 3 years of teaching experience. • They discussed EP (Exchange Participant) traits and opportunity details. • Note: Due to the young age of the students and their unfamiliarity with certain cultural practices, it is preferred that candidates do not wear a hijab to ensure a comfortable learning environment for the children. • A presentation was given regarding Vietnam's culture, popular landmarks, and testimonials from previous EPs.
3	AIESEC in Universitas Brawijaya Explanations	• AIESEC in UB introduced their team and provided an overview of Indonesia, specifically Malang. They highlighted LC UB's reputation as the 2nd largest entity in AIESEC in Indonesia. • The team welcomed Ha Chi Truong with the Indonesian greeting "Selamat Datang". Interestingly, Ha Chi Truong had prior experience using the phrase. • They discussed the characteristics of the talent pool in Malang, including their strengths, weaknesses, and current job trends in Indonesia. • Product Focus: AIESEC in UB explained their main products, oGTa (Global Talent) and oGTe (Global Teacher), and their focus areas. • IR Schedule: It was agreed that the International Relations (IR) meetings would be held once a month with AIESEC in LC Hanoi to monitor progress.
4	Closing	• The meeting concluded with a "checkout" question and a documentation (photo) session. Both parties expressed their enthusiasm for future collaborations.

5. Meeting Result
